

---

Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by dailyherald - 2006/09/15 00:39

---

I believe Stan Kanter and his friends and neighbors are an embarrassment to America and democracy.

Kanter described Rocky Anderson as a traitor to the nation for voicing valid and, according to Bush's approval ratings, popular opinions about the "president" and his handling of the situation against the "threats" to our nation.

Read more...

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by morallysuperior - 2006/09/15 03:46

---

amen to that

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by scruffy - 2006/09/15 08:17

---

dailyherald wrote:

I believe Stan Kanter and his friends and neighbors are an embarrassment to America and democracy. Kanter described Rocky Anderson as a traitor to the nation for voicing valid and, according to Bush's approval ratings, popular opinions about the "president" and his handling of the situation against the "threats" to our nation.

Read more...

Odd. You say that Mayor Anderson may express his opinions freely, even though the expression was vitriolic and mean spirited, inclusive of anyone who would support President Bush as low life idiots. However, someone opposed to Mayor Anderson's views should just shut up and sit in the corner and should certainly not openly express that opinion. A bit hypocritical.

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by Pittakos - 2006/09/15 10:47

---

Allow me to praise Rocky's antics. He was amusing, at best.

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by lt.dean - 2006/09/17 19:07

---

scruffy wrote:

dailyherald wrote:

I believe Stan Kanter and his friends and neighbors are an embarrassment to America and democracy. Kanter described Rocky Anderson as a traitor to the nation for voicing valid and, according to Bush's approval ratings, popular opinions about the "president" and his handling of the situation against the "threats" to our nation.

Read more...

---

Odd. You say that Mayor Anderson may express his opinions freely, even though the expression was vitriolic and mean spirited, inclusive of anyone who would support President Bush as low life idiots. However, someone opposed to Mayor Anderson's views should just shut up and sit in the corner and should certainly not openly express that opinion. A bit hypocritical.

Exactly.

---

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by rolandkayser - 2006/09/17 20:55

Lt.Dean wrote:

scruffy wrote:

dailyherald wrote:

I believe Stan Kanter and his friends and neighbors are an embarrassment to America and democracy. Kanter described Rocky Anderson as a traitor to the nation for voicing valid and, according to Bush's approval ratings, popular opinions about the "president" and his handling of the situation against the "threats" to our nation.

Read more...

Odd. You say that Mayor Anderson may express his opinions freely, even though the expression was vitriolic and mean spirited, inclusive of anyone who would support President Bush as low life idiots. However, someone opposed to Mayor Anderson's views should just shut up and sit in the corner and should certainly not openly express that opinion. A bit hypocritical.

Exactly.

Please cite an instance where Mayor Anderson attempted to suppress the free speech rights of someone who disagreed with him. I am not aware of any.

---

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by Decaf - 2006/09/17 22:40

Roland Kayser wrote:

Lt.Dean wrote:

scruffy wrote:

dailyherald wrote:

I believe Stan Kanter and his friends and neighbors are an embarrassment to America and democracy. Kanter described Rocky Anderson as a traitor to the nation for voicing valid and, according to Bush's approval ratings, popular opinions about the "president" and his handling of the situation against the "threats" to our nation.

Read more...

Odd. You say that Mayor Anderson may express his opinions freely, even though the expression was vitriolic and mean spirited, inclusive of anyone who would support President Bush as low life idiots. However, someone opposed to Mayor Anderson's views should just shut up and sit in the corner and should certainly not openly express that opinion. A bit hypocritical.

---

Exactly.

Please cite an instance where Mayor Anderson attempted to suppress the free speech rights of someone who disagreed with him. I am not aware of any.

He doesn't have to. Not directly. Just read the rabid obstructions of his little commie mouse-minions. We can start with yours, then move to the sickening sensitivity of Comrade Squealer, the Holiday Tree Elf.

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by proletarian - 2006/09/17 22:47

---

Decaf wrote:

He doesn't have to. Not directly. Just read the sickening posts from his little commie mouse-minions. We can start with yours.

Does he scare you, hillbilly?

I'm sorry.

Maybe if you turn up the wrastlin' on yer tv set, all the big words and intelligent arguments will stop.

Die already.

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by ericmiami - 2006/09/18 12:04

---

Decaf never got over Roller Derby being cancelled.

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by rolandkayser - 2006/09/18 17:32

---

Decaf wrote:

Roland Kayser wrote:

Lt.Dean wrote:

scruffy wrote:

dailyherald wrote:

I believe Stan Kanter and his friends and neighbors are an embarrassment to America and democracy. Kanter described Rocky Anderson as a traitor to the nation for voicing valid and, according to Bush's approval ratings, popular opinions about the "president" and his handling of the situation against the "threats" to our nation.

Read more...

Odd. You say that Mayor Anderson may express his opinions freely, even though the expression was vitriolic and mean spirited, inclusive of anyone who would support President Bush as low life idiots. However, someone opposed to Mayor Anderson's views should just shut up and sit in the corner and should certainly not openly express that opinion. A bit hypocritical.

---

Exactly.

Please cite an instance where Mayor Anderson attempted to suppress the free speech rights of someone who disagreed with him. I am not aware of any.

He doesn't have to. Not directly. Just read the rabid obstructions of his little commie mouse-minions. We can start with yours, then move to the sickening sensitivity of Comrade Squealer, the Holiday Tree Elf.

Your eloquent and erudite rebuttal has truly humbled me. I shall, henceforth, better try to emulate your blend of bathetically bombastic banalities and insipidly insouciant invective.

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by Decaf - 2006/09/19 10:54

---

Roland Kayser wrote:

Decaf wrote:

Roland Kayser wrote:

Lt.Dean wrote:

scruffy wrote:

dailyherald wrote:

I believe Stan Kanter and his friends and neighbors are an embarrassment to America and democracy. Kanter described Rocky Anderson as a traitor to the nation for voicing valid and, according to Bush's approval ratings, popular opinions about the "president" and his handling of the situation against the "threats" to our nation.

Read more...

Odd. You say that Mayor Anderson may express his opinions freely, even though the expression was vitriolic and mean spirited, inclusive of anyone who would support President Bush as low life idiots. However, someone opposed to Mayor Anderson's views should just shut up and sit in the corner and should certainly not openly express that opinion. A bit hypocritical.

Exactly.

Please cite an instance where Mayor Anderson attempted to suppress the free speech rights of someone who disagreed with him. I am not aware of any.

He doesn't have to. Not directly. Just read the rabid obstructions of his little commie mouse-minions. We can start with yours, then move to the sickening sensitivity of Comrade Squealer, the Holiday Tree Elf.

Your eloquent and erudite rebuttal has truly humbled me. I shall, henceforth, better try to emulate your blend of bathetically bombastic banalities and insipidly insouciant invective.

A superabundance of pompous verbosity dredged with hypersensitive contemptability and overt indignation.

A simple "You're right Decaf, I support Rocky Anderson, and I hate when people like you get in our way to spread filth throughout this state". Would have saved you unnecessary time raiding your dictionary.

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

---

Posted by ericmiami - 2006/09/19 14:59

A simple spell check would have allowed you to spell everything in your post correctly. It's not contemptability.

=====

Re: Anderson deserves praise for SLC demonstrations

Posted by rolandkayser - 2006/09/19 16:55

Decaf wrote:

Roland Kayser wrote:

Decaf wrote:

Roland Kayser wrote:

Lt.Dean wrote:

scruffy wrote:

dailyherald wrote:

I believe Stan Kanter and his friends and neighbors are an embarrassment to America and democracy. Kanter described Rocky Anderson as a traitor to the nation for voicing valid and, according to Bush's approval ratings, popular opinions about the "president" and his handling of the situation against the "threats" to our nation.

Read more...

Odd. You say that Mayor Anderson may express his opinions freely, even though the expression was vitriolic and mean spirited, inclusive of anyone who would support President Bush as low life idiots. However, someone opposed to Mayor Anderson's views should just shut up and sit in the corner and should certainly not openly express that opinion. A bit hypocritical.

Exactly.

Please cite an instance where Mayor Anderson attempted to suppress the free speech rights of someone who disagreed with him. I am not aware of any.

He doesn't have to. Not directly. Just read the rabid obstructions of his little commie mouse-minions. We can start with yours, then move to the sickening sensitivity of Comrade Squealer, the Holiday Tree Elf.

Your eloquent and erudite rebuttal has truly humbled me. I shall, henceforth, better try to emulate your blend of bathetically bombastic banalities and insipidly insouciant invective.

A superabundance of pompous verbosity dredged with hypersensitive contemptability and overt indignation.

A simple "You're right Decaf, I support Rocky Anderson, and I hate when people like you get in our way to spread filth throughout this state". Would have saved you unnecessary time raiding your dictionary.

I think the Iraq war was a huge mistake, but you have the absolute right to disagree and the absolute right to voice that disagreement in any forum of your choice, provided that you do it peacefully. Should anyone ever try to prevent you from expressing your opinion, just let me know and I will come to your defense.

=====