
GENEROUS FAMILY HISTORIANS

Posted by dailyherald - 2007/07/14 01:13

'Genealogists are the most generous people on earth.' I've heard that statement many times. Evidence indicates it's truth.

People I've never met and hardly corresponded with have sent files with generations of documented family members. Others have forwarded copies of newspaper articles, naturalization papers, marriage certificates and other documents.

Read more...

=====

Re: GENEROUS FAMILY HISTORIANS

Posted by missy - 2007/07/14 08:41

I don't know about that, I was doing some research on Ancestry.com and found information pertaining to my family (some of it wrong) supplied by someone after a few emails where I asked if he would help me find information pertaining to my husbands family if I gave him correct information to my family. I haven't heard from him since. So much for sharing information.

=====