
Students spin tales at Storytelling Festival

Posted by dailyherald - 2007/08/29 22:05

The 18th annual Timpanogos Storytelling Festival is going on today until Saturday in Orem, and quite a few select local students will be performing.

Tomorrow, starting at 10 a.m., audiences will hear from Madelyn Monsen and Mason Watts, both from Highland Elementary.

Read more...

=====

Re: Students spin tales at Storytelling Festival

Posted by cheriedavis - 2007/08/30 23:04

We at the Festival are thrilled to have the youth perform. Rebecca Shippen, from Alpine Elementary, Brinley Dayton and Ashley DeWitt from Cedar Ridge Elementary, and Kira Hamilton from Mountain Ridge Junior High all performed today for school groups. Since the performances were limited to schools and not open to the public, their performance times were not listed in the program. However, their performances were well received by the students from around this area.

Cherie Davis
Timpanogos Storytelling Festival
Youth Tellers Chair

=====