
Books on CD help pass the time during trips

Posted by dailyherald - 2007/12/11 04:20

Whether you are driving over the river or flying through the sky to Grandma's house this holiday season, consider the trip. You might spend hours crammed in a car with your siblings or waiting at an airport. It could be too noisy to read but perfect for putting on your headphones and listening to a book on CD.

Read more...

Re: Books on CD help pass the time during trips

Posted by Pittakos - 2007/12/11 15:49

When I used to commute all the time, I listened to a whole lot of books on tape including the entire Hornblower series. Orem library has a great collection of books.

Re:Books on CD help pass the time during trips

Posted by rconway - 2008/09/07 02:27

Hi, this is Ricky I am also getting bored while traveling. Actually I read books but there are more disturbances from our surroundings, the idea posted by you is very great to read a book on CD while traveling. I like way you have chosen and I will try it.

Ricky Conway
Used Cars
