
Guest Opinion: Congressman shielded the weak

Posted by dailyherald - 2007/12/18 00:07

As a solo pro-lifer over the years -- among my wife, my friends and journalists I work with -- I have been strengthened by knowing and learning from the late Henry Hyde on how to report on the degree to which this country can and is combating the culture of death, from abortion to assisted suicide and the "futility doctrine" in a growing number of hospitals that certain lives are not worth living any more.

Read more...

=====

Re: Guest Opinion: Congressman shielded the weak

Posted by The Keeper - 2007/12/18 16:14

Appears Chris "I love torture" Cannon won't shield the weak!

Intelligence Authorization Act, FY2008 - Vote Passed (222-199, 10 Not Voting)

This bill authorizing intelligence spending would also ban waterboarding, mock executions, and other severe methods of interrogation.

How the U.S. House from Utah voted:

Rep. Rob Bishop (R-1) N
Rep. Chris Cannon (R-3) N
Rep. Jim Matheson (D-2) Y

<http://www.congress.org/congressorg/issues/votes/?votenum=1160&chamber=H&congress=1101&state=ut>

=====