This thread discusses the Content article: Almost anybody can pose nude at UVSC

Anything goes to increase enrollment, it would appear. The Board of Regents picked Sederberg as their choice for UVSC president to AVOID creating another BYU.
It looks like that danger has passed.

I suspect we will be seeing scholarships for nude models as the next step.

Just yesterday students in a LIBERAL Arts class were treated to a presentation by a transsexual so that they might be enlightened about the joys of that lifestyle.

Parents and taxpayers, do you know how your dollars are being spent to destroy the family?

The UVSC, aka UVU, Sociology Department was hawking Marxist ideology long before President Sederberg arrived!

The troubling part is that psychology and sociology majors in one class that was also required for other majors didn't see anything unusual about what he was teaching, but students in other majors had the guy pegged as a Marxist from day one.

Every time the instructor started in with his down with America, down with the troops rants, a Utah Highway Patrol Trooper in class would lay into him and make in look like an idiot. It was entertaining as hell!

So if they pose for free, would that be OK? And what's so terrible about a transsexual? The weird one is you.

I didn't know you were in the Highway Patrol.

What do you want to me say Keeper. Some guys dressed up in a parade. I suppose you're one of "those" that are frightened of Sponge Bob Square Pants. Afraid you might turn Gay if you watch his cartoon.

That is a crossdresser. A transsexual is a person that has undergone a sex change. Big difference.

LOLOLOLOL, omg, that's a good one. Now artistic nudes destroy the family? You people are too much!

I've posed nude for art students at UVSC numerous times in the past. I highly doubt anyone's family was decimated because of it.

And what's wrong with transsexuals? Enlighten me with your medieval thinking.

Ummmm, the sculpture and painting of nudes goes waaaaaayyy back. It's not a new thing. I suggest a brief study of art history.
