Wow. How can a class-A a-hole such as myself allow such an incoherent ramble to simply pass through D.Herald Forum-dom without so much a comment? I cannot! SO here goes:

Here is the triumphant leader for the anti-immigration movement! Your words have ne'er been heralded forth so eloquently before! Here is the poster child for what a Doctor of Philosophy in the Fine Arts will get you! Speak, poet, speak! Thy words are beauty manifest! Thy comforting soliloquy gives hope to all in these most desperate times! All: listen to this preacher's words! Incorporate his thoughtful observations into your life; you'll be the better off, I assure you! Shakespeare ne'er dreamt such words as thee! Listen! O! Life! O love! Thy poet speaketh! The glorious power of words! of language! of life and death and love! We are in awe of thee! We weepeth such tears of joy at thy prose! Yes, my dear poet, patriarch, father, friend. Speak, just so. We'll listen.
