

---

Johnson wins second straight championship

Posted by dailyherald - 2007/11/19 00:06

---

HOMESTEAD, Fla. -- Totally calm and cool, Jimmie Johnson left the pre-race drivers' meeting Sunday afternoon flashing the peace sign at people wishing him luck.

Two fingers.

Two straight championships.

Johnson become the first driver to win consecutive championships since Jeff Gordon in 1997 and '98, wrapping up the title by finishing a trouble-free seventh in the season finale at Homestead-Miami Speedway.

When it was over, he and Read more...

---

Re: Johnson wins second straight championship

Posted by megus - 2007/11/19 17:30

---

In a season where wins mean everything. Jimmy pulled this off and deserves the win!

Way to go Jimmy Johnson.

---

Re: Johnson wins second straight championship

Posted by megus - 2007/11/20 10:15

---

Question about the chase.

In the old format, Jeff Gordon would have won his 6th championship now. Yet he's still stuck on 4.

Anyone feel like it cheats the fans to have the whole thing boil down to the last ten races?

Or just the drivers?

---

Re:Johnson wins second straight championship

Posted by bob55 - 2008/06/05 23:11

---

I already know it....
in the mean time i really enjoy...
cong to him....

---

thankx for info

-----

Bob

Problem With Drugs or Alcohol? This Drug Rehab has Helped Thousands of Individuals to Recover.

Drug Rehab

=====