
Beck struggling with winless Dolphins

Posted by dailyherald - 2007/12/07 00:06

DAVIE, Fla. -- For Miami Dolphins rookie John Beck, there's little time these days for dinner at a restaurant or a movie with his wife.

Aside from Sundays, Beck rarely ventures out in public. That's probably just as well, because he's the quarterback of a team that's 0-12 and hasn't scored an offensive touchdown in three games.

"If I'm not here preparing, I'm at home doing the preparation that needs to be done," said Beck, standing at his

Read more...

Re: Beck struggling with winless Dolphins

Posted by ericmiami - 2007/12/09 11:23

dailyherald wrote:

DAVIE, Fla. -- For Miami Dolphins rookie John Beck, there's little time these days for dinner at a restaurant or a movie with his wife.

Aside from Sundays, Beck rarely ventures out in public. That's probably just as well, because he's the quarterback of a team that's 0-12 and hasn't scored an offensive touchdown in three games.

"If I'm not here preparing, I'm at home doing the preparation that needs to be done," said Beck, standing at his

Read more...

BYU just doesn't get the recognition it deserves. Maybe Beck's performance will do the trick.
