
BYU defense gets tough in victory against UVSC

Posted by dailyherald - 2007/12/08 18:06

On a day when BYU turned the ball over 23 times, the only chance the Cougars had to cool off Utah Valley State on Saturday afternoon in the Marriott Center would be on the defensive end.

They would have to do something extraordinary.

Like what?

Something like holding Sandy Marvin, UVSC's second-leading scorer (19.5 ppg) scoreless.

Read more...

=====

Re: BYU defense gets tough in victory against UVSC

Posted by cougarman - 2007/12/09 09:08

Congratulations to the Lady Cougars for a solid win over their little sister UVSC at the Marriott. While BYU has had it own struggles in early season they put a solid stop on the Lady Wolverine. Judkins had a good game plan in not worrying about Robin Fairbanks and shutting down the rest of the Lady Wolves. King did a very good job on Fairbanks and even seemed to run the floor ahead of Fairbanks each time down. The 0-10 shooting, 5 turn overs and 5 fouls by Marvin was a disaster for UVSC. The Cougars showed what real D1 college defense looks like and UVSC just wnet down in flames.

=====