
Obama vows to continue war on terror 'with vigor'

This thread discusses the Content article: Obama vows to continue war on terror 'with vigor'

Is B.O. flip flopping AGAIN? Sounds to me like he is turning into a war monger himself. Now what are the baby killing liberals going to do? Who will they turn to next? It also sounds like he won't be bringing anyone troops home from the war at least for 4 or 5 years. Everything comes out of his mouth changes from week to week. Even CBS news is starting to run all the terrible B.O. stories about who he is and who he changes too from week to week. If I were on his election plane, I'd be looking for a parachute right about now...

The Magic Messiah Obama was raised as an Islamist; therefore, he cannot be expect to take the war to the Islamists with vigor.

That's right! Maybus kept his fingers in his ears while growing up and attending school in Indonesia. A region of the world that contains more Muslims than the Middle East.

Obama was not raised a Muslim.

The facts don't support such a conclusion, but do support that those who call him a Muslim are either mentally feeble, illiterate, or malignantly motivated.

I have it on good authority that Obama is instituting the draft to carry on the war in Afghanistan. He's going to draft Republican small-business owners, starting in Utah. So why should I care, Woodrow?

And George W. (Skull & Bones) Bush is really a born again Christian!

I wonder how his visit to Bohemian Grove is going?

Afghanistan is a difficult situation. My understanding is that Karzai's control doesn't extend beyond Kabul. War lord's control the rest of the country. Seems they always have. Sending more troops is fine, (which is already being done) as long as they find a way to unite these war lords. Success on that has been minimal. I haven't heard any new ideas on how that is to be done. I don't think chiding Karzai is the answer.

The good news is that they have a new machine that you just place two little hoses in your nose. No mask. I will ship one out to you ASAP. With a little more sleep each night, you will see B.O. has no chance with out big bertha getting off the couch and to the polls. :)

How about some lastest photos you have taken?

My wife and I are going out in our neighborhood to canvass undecided voters. I'll look for Big Bertha and give her your regards.

Very nice, but big bertha lives in the projects. I don't think you will see any living in the "neighborhood":)

Thus, the challenge for B.O.
